You may also want to visit beautiful downtown Williamsburg (where the street is closed to traffic) and enjoy the shops, or New Town (which is modern).

Best Buy, and Barnes & Noble are also located here.

Restaurants

There are many restaurants close by including: Outback Steakhouse, Cracker Barrel, TGI Fridays, Red Lobster, Second Street, Food For Thought, Paul's Deli, Plaza Azteca, La Terraza Mexican Grill, Fat Tuna, Bonefish Grill, Baker's Crust, Buffalo Wild Wings, Cook Out, Chipotle, Sal's, and Carrabba's.

For breakfast, typical of Williamsburg, there are plenty of pancake and waffle restaurants (e.g., IHOP).

Attractions

There are numerous attractions in Williamsburg including those listed below and others such as Ripley's Believe It Or Not, and movie theatres (including Movie Tavern, and Regal New Town).

Busch Gardens

Colonial Williamsburg

Jamestown

Virginia Air & Space Center

Virginia Beach

Water Country USA

Yorktown

Instructor

Hunter Austegard received Bachelor's and Master's degrees magna cum laude in electrical engineering.

He is well known for his knowledge of system safety, which dates back to 1988, and software safety, which dates back to 1986. His experience spans the safety-critical sectors of defense, aviation, unmanned systems, rail (light, heavy, subway, commuter, and high speed), nuclear power, and medical devices.

Hunter has received numerous commendations, been interviewed by newspaper reporters, and has appeared on television.

He has been teaching courses in safety since 1992. Standing ovations are not unusual. Hunter is known for his key note speaking engagements and continues to receive invitations from organizations and interest groups to participate in conferences and to sit on technical committees.
